

Contents

Foreword (Sylvia Wrona, Wiesława Walkowska)	11
--	----

Articles, polemics, debates

Agata Miodek Therapy and rehabilitation of a small child with disability in contemporary social conditions	13
Ilona Fajfer-Kruczek Family with a disabled child and significance of the local system of social support	21
Sylvia Wrona Networks of support for families with a disabled child – a research report	33
Katarzyna Chrząszcz Family assistant as a form of support	45
Ewelina Waligóra Role of the father in the family of a disabled child	57
Beata Skotnicka Prenatal, perinatal and postnatal risk factors of intellectual disability – prevention and education	67
Elżbieta M. Minczakiewicz Biological and environmental determinants of developing communication and language skills of children with the diagnosis of obstetric brain injury	81

Anna Wojtas

Sign language as a communication form supporting a deaf child in the family environment 97

Wiesława Walkowska, Bartosz Gągorowski

Assumptions and barriers of integrated education 107

Jolanta Lipińska-Lokś

Supporting parents of children with disability in the school environment – a case of good practice from Zielona Góra 123

Jacek Sikorski

Characterisation of selected components of the family environment of lower-secondary school learners with intellectual disability 137

Olga Tomanek

The programme Starszy Brat – Starsza Siostra /Older Brother – Older Sister/ as an example of supporting the family with a disabled child 149

Artur Mrozek

Asperger syndrome – a diagnosis which will probably disappear from the classification of diseases 159